FILLING GOD'S HOUSE

Theme Scriptures: Luke 14:15-24 and Luke 15:1-10

(62:6) I turned and looked back in the direction I had come from. Standing before His throne, I could see the entire room. The spectacle was glorious beyond description. Millions filled the ranks. Each individual in the lowest rank was more awesome than any army and had more power. It was far beyond my capacity to absorb such a panorama of glory. Even so, I could see that only a very small portion of the great room was occupied.

(7) I then looked back at the Lord and was astonished to see tears in His eyes. He had wiped the tears away from every eye here except His own. As a tear ran down His cheek, He caught it in His hand. He then offered it to me.

(8) "This is My cup. Will you drink it with Me?"

(9) There was no way I could refuse Him. As the Lord continued to look at me, I began to feel His great love. Even as foul as I was, He still loved me. As undeserving as I was, He wanted me to be close to Him. Then He said:

(10) "I love all of these with a love that you cannot now understand. I also love all who were supposed to be here but did not come. I left the ninety-nine to go after the one who was lost. My shepherds will not leave the one to go after the ninety-nine who are still lost. I came to save the lost (Luke 19:10). Will you share My heart to go and save the lost? Will you help to fill this room? Will you help to fill these thrones and every other seat in this hall? Will you take up this quest to bring joy to heaven, to Me, and to My Father?"

Jesse Duplantis' heavenly experience: Jesus' worst day is still in the future, the day when those He died for will be sent to hell.

(63:1) "This is judgment for My own household, and My own house is not full. The last battle will not be over until My house is full. Only then will it be time for us to redeem the earth and remove the evil from My creation. If you drink My cup, you will love the lost the way that I love them."

(63:2) He took a cup so plain that it seemed out of place in a room of such glory, and He placed His tear in it. He then gave it to me. I have never tasted anything so bitter! I knew that I could in no way drink it all, or even much of it, but I was determined to drink as much as I could. The Lord patiently waited until I finally erupted into such weeping that I felt like rivers of tears were flowing from me. I was crying for the lost, but even more, I was crying for the Lord.

Aimee Semple McPherson: "Give me a burden for souls)

(25:1) Wisdom led me down the mountain to the very lowest level, which was named "Salvation." . . .

(2) I was appalled by the carnage on this level. Every soldier was very badly wounded, but none of them were dead. Multitudes were barely clinging to the edge. Many seemed ready to fall off, but none did. Angels were everywhere ministering to the soldiers with such great joy that I had to ask: "Why are they so happy?"

(3) "These angels have beheld the courage that it took for these to hold on. They may not have gone any farther, but neither did they give up. They will soon be healed; then they will behold the glory of the rest of the mountain and they will begin to climb. These will be great warriors for the battle to come."

(4) "But wouldn't they have been better off to climb the mountain with the rest of us?" I protested, seeing their present condition.

(5) "It would have been better for them, but not for you. By staying here, they kept most of your enemies occupied and that made it easier for you to climb. Very few from the higher levels ever reached out to help others come to the mountain, but these did. Even when barely clinging to the mountain themselves, they would reach out to pull others up. In fact, most of the mighty warriors were led to the mountain by these faithful ones.

*(6) "These who stayed and faithfully fought on the level of "Salvation" are no less heroes than the ones who made it to the top. They brought great joy to heaven by leading others to salvation. It was for this reason that all the angels in heaven wanted to come to minister to them, but only the most honored were permitted." Daniel 12:3, Proverbs 11:30

*(80:3) I now looked at that man (Angelo), a king sitting on a throne far more glorious than Solomon could have even imagined. Hosts of angels were arrayed about him, waiting to do his bidding. (Jesus showed Kenneth E Hagin the soul winner's crown)

(80:2) . . . had been born deaf. He was abused and kept in a dark, cold attic until he was found by the authorities when he was eight years old. He had then been shifted from one institution to another, where the abuse continued. Finally, he was turned out onto the streets.

(80:6) "Angelo could not hear, but he had learned to read, so I sent him a gospel tract. As he read it, the Spirit opened his heart, and he gave his life to Me. I again doubled the portions of My love to him, and he faithfully used all of them. He wanted to share Me with others, but he could not speak. Even though he lived in such poverty, he started spending over half of everything he made on gospel tracts to give out on street corners." (Please, let us distribute our gospel tracts).

(80:7) "How many did he lead to You?" I asked, thinking that it must have been multitudes for him to be sitting with the kings.

(80:8) "One," the Lord answered. "In order to encourage him, I let him lead a dying alcoholic to Me. It encouraged him so much that he would have stood on that corner for many more years just to bring another soul to repentance. But all of heaven was entreating Me to bring him here quickly, and I, too, wanted him to receive his reward."
